Being God's Community

Deuteronomy 5:16-22

The Ten Commandments are not a _____ list of minimal _____.

The Ten Commandments establish a society where life is _____ through _____.

"You shall not murder" means I must seek the _____ of the people around me because they are made in the _____ of God.

"You shall not steal" means I must look for ways to share my _____ with others instead of using them all for _____.

"You shall not give false testimony" means I must avoid _____ and must speak the _____ to protect the _____.

Questions to Consider:

• Do you tend to see the Ten Commandments as prohibitions of negative acts, or as stimulators of loving acts towards our neighbor?

• What is one loving act towards another person that the Ten Commandments will stimulate in you this week?